YAPı KREDİ YAYINLARI

There was a little girl, and her name was Zuzu.

Zuzu loved animals; she frequently dreamt of having a farm of her own.

Zuzu also loved drawing; she was especially passionate about drawing animals, and she was pretty good at it.

At school, everyone called her, "Zuzu the artist, who loves animals."

She carried her sketchbook and pencils everywhere.

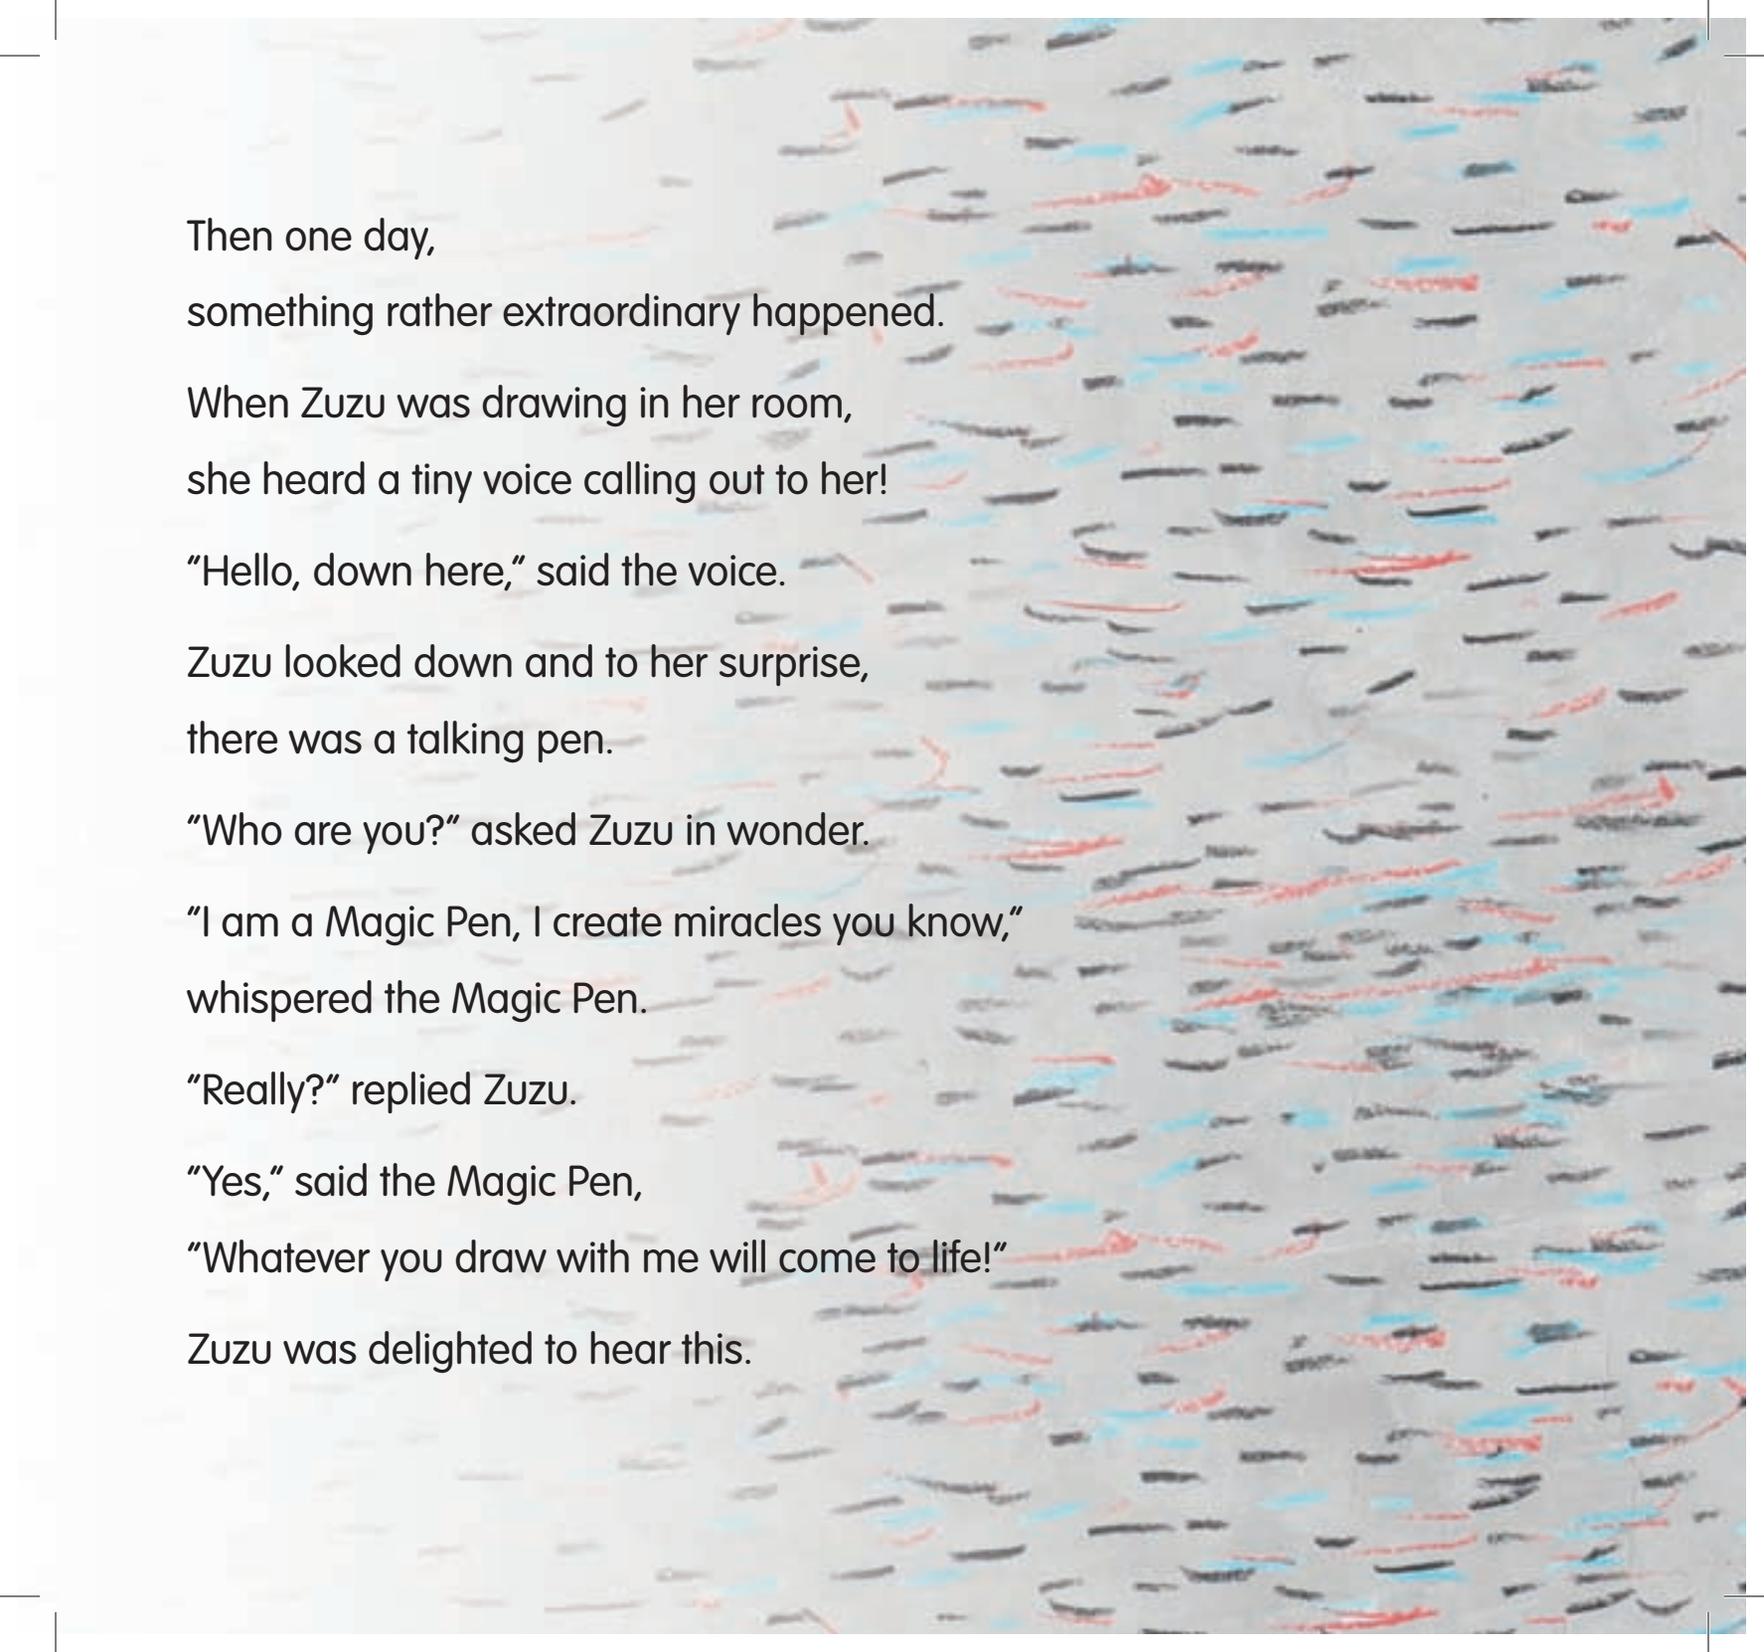

Zuzu would say, "I must be prepared, in case I come across something pretty."

For instance, one day on her way to school, she saw a cat sleeping on a stray dog, and she made a drawing of the scene right then and there.

Zuzu had many of her drawings around her room.

Then one day,
something rather extraordinary happened.

When Zuzu was drawing in her room,
she heard a tiny voice calling out to her!

“Hello, down here,” said the voice.

Zuzu looked down and to her surprise,
there was a talking pen.

“Who are you?” asked Zuzu in wonder.

“I am a Magic Pen, I create miracles you know,”
whispered the Magic Pen.

“Really?” replied Zuzu.

“Yes,” said the Magic Pen,

“Whatever you draw with me will come to life!”

Zuzu was delighted to hear this.

Zuzu immediately grabbed the Magic Pen, and started to draw.

First, she drew an elephant.

The elephant Zuzu had drawn,
started to wriggle on the paper!

Zuzu was absolutely amazed.

And guess what happened next?

The elephant popped out of the paper,
greeted Zuzu with his trunk,
and lumbered away.

“Wow!” said Zuzu in astonishment.

She didn't waste any second,
and started to draw other animal characters.
